Embracing Prosperity

Rev. LeRoy Zemke, Pastor

“A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh”.

Luke 6:45

As a spiritual concept which can be applied as a practical tool, prosperity consciousness is a challenge for most people until we get the key. How can we take these ideas and spiritual concepts and bring them into our lives? How can we use them? How can we get hold of them and make them work somehow, in some fashion, in a daily or in an on-going way in the context of living?

The word prosperity comes from the Latin word prospereare - which means to flourish, to thrive, to succeed. To flourish means to grow, to unfold, to flower, to do well. When we speak of plants as thriving, for example, we say they're in a state of growth, flourishing. The energy around them and within them is healthy, positive.

Similarly, we look at people and we say they are thriving. We get a feeling about a man or woman that they're doing well. There's something about the energy of the person that seems to say that their life forces are flowing through them in a great way. They radiate good health, vitality and success.

So, as we think about thriving, we're considering idea(s) that support growth, flourishing, succeeding, prospering. What is it in our life that we want to grow? To flourish? How do we want to prosper? Succeed?

Metaphysics is quite explicit in its teachings to the effect that we have a responsibility for what we think about.

If we are responsible to and for ourselves, as part of the metaphysical context, means that we have to become conscious (awake/aware) enough to understand something about how we think creatively. Thinking means, among other things, the capacity to regulate ideas, concepts, and images.

To regulate doesn't mean to control our thinking to the degree of being rigid. To regulate means that we have some influence over the way in which we bring our attention, our internal intention, our ability to focus on some one thing, to a given idea, to an activity, project, person, experience.

Returning now to the subject of prosperity, I have four points that I wish to focus on. Prosperity is contingent upon directed thought.

1.) The first consideration in any effort toward prosperity is to invite God into our life as our Partner. God is the best Partner we will ever have. God will never cheat us. God will never desert us. God will never let us down. The Presence of God is always available to us and for us.

Invite God into our life through any and all the ways we already know about: through prayer, meditation, Yoga, through spiritual studies, and through each and every activity in our life. Whatever we do, invite God as the Partner that goes with us.

God becomes our partner when and as we invite this all-encompassing radiant force, this Life Force to support us, to be a part of us, to be with us, to walk with us, to take every step we take. Invited or not, God is always with us in all things that we do. Awakening to and affirming that understanding of that connection “throws the power switch” that puts our life in “high gear.” We awaken to the prosperity inherent in that understanding.

It is a Truth principle: In God we move and breathe and have our being. So, likewise, it's true that we can (and do) take God with us everywhere we go. We take God with us by the way we think about that Universal Power, by the humility and awe we have within ourselves that says, “God, I invite you into my every activity.” When we open our eyes in the morning-stop for just a moment and invite God into our day. And give thanks, affirming, “God, it's a wonderful day! I am open to your Presence. You guide my steps through the day. I ask for your support as you walk with me through all of the things that I've got to do, or want to do, or feel are mine to do, or feel led to do. God, you are my Partner in all my ways.”

As we remember, God is our Partner. That relationship is first and foremost in our life. God is our Partner always. Whatever it is that we want to work on, be it prosperity, or health, or relationships, or whatever. God is our Partner. Our efforts will be empowered, if we remember to ask God to be with us. Just ask.

“How do I know whether God’s listening?”

We will find out when we become still, really quiet and feel God’s response in our being, in our soul, in those inner depths of our own resources. We will find out whether God’s listening by the way things work out. Part of our work is to get quiet enough so we don’t fill our heads with our daily life’s “chatter”. We pride ourselves on being one of the most technologically advanced nations in the world. But one of the disadvantages of technology is that we can have so much stimuli, so much information coming at us from all directions that we can’t possibly register it all, or even begin to act upon it responsibly.

We are continually being invited to focus on the outer world, which pulls us away from our divine center. We must then remember to turn within and reconnect with God, our Partner, Who is constantly with us, ready to help, guide and empower us.

2.) Successful people tend to agree on one major step in accomplishing their lives’ objectives. That step can be encapsulated in the word plan. Teachers say, “Plan your work and work your plan.” “If we fail to plan, we plan to fail.” If we plan...and work our plan, we will make steps in the direction of our goal.

Plan. Planning means to organize our thinking, to take responsibility for what we think. Planning means to organize our lives, our affairs. It suggests decluttering our affairs and activities.

Prosperity is actually about being clear about one’s own energy, one’s own involvement with one’s own life. Too often we take on too much with reference to other people in their lives. They become over involved with families. Thus do their energies go spinning off into areas over which they really have no control, and cannot be effective.

All of the teachings are definite on this point: Our responsibility to ourselves is to get clear within ourselves. So what is our goal? What goal is it that we feel is of real value? That’s a question we have to put to ourselves. “What is my goal?” Once we’re able to state our goal(s), we have to plot a course of action. Planning leads us to our goals. So that’s the next step. Getting a simple handle on this idea of establishing our goal is a major important step in the prosperity journey.

So it is with a job, so it is with a task, so it is with a goal of prosperity. We have to get clear in our involvement with the objective. That is one of the major secrets.

3.) Study the lives and efforts of men and women who have been and/or are successful in their various fields of endeavor. Study doesn’t mean just watch a television program or DVD, YouTube or use the internet, on-line learning, or digital tutorials. Study means to get involved in a process to the degree that we are able and thus to understand something of the creative side of the lives of others. If they’ve written books, buy and read them.

Study their efforts. Read, learn and discover what they did (or are doing). How did (does) their life work? What made (makes) them tick? What were (are) their beliefs and what were (are) their goals? Napoleon Hill wrote a wonderful book many years ago, “Think and Grow Rich.” If you haven’t read it, I recommend it. It’s still a classic.

Napoleon Hill had a marvelous idea, which was to go to visit as many of the successful men and women of his time - early in the previous century - to interview them and then to extricate out of the interviews the core ideas, the key concepts and endeavor to thus discover the secrets of their success and then put it together in his book. “Think and Grow Rich” has become his classic, but he wrote many others. The material in it is still applicable now.

In the study of the lives of men and women who are successful, we begin something of a discovery of the intentionality that those specific souls, those beings, came to discover within the context of their lives which helped them to stay focused in the direction of their talents, ambitions, goals and purposes.

Success comes when we’re focused, not when we’re scattered. As we study, find out where we stand in relationship to the life of the man or woman that we’re studying. Do we find ourselves really connecting to their philosophy or not? And if we’re not connected, then find another successful person (model) who will help us make that discovery. That is essential to discover where we are in our inner being.

None of us can discover where we are inwardly until we have sorted out our ideas. We have to become clear about what it is that we are really learning. So when we are reading, when we are writing, when we are listening, when we are studying the works of these successful people, keep a journal. Keep an idea journal for yourself, each entry of which says to us this idea is important. This is something I need to pay attention to. This is something I need to understand and master.

One of the ideas we’re sure to come across is the Master Mind Principle. Napoleon Hill defined Master Mind in his writing because he discovered that one of the men he talked to used this principle of Master Mind (inviting the activity of God into his life and acknowledging that God was in charge of his life) in a very powerful and a very profound way.

In the use of the Master Mind Principle we discover one of the tools that helps us is to get clear about what it is that we want to bring into our lives. It’s a powerful tool. A tool helps us to get focused. It helps us move in the direction of our plan. It helps us work our plan. It helps bring us toward the direction of our goal.

4.) Finally, last step. To create anything in life that's worthwhile - that is of value - requires effort. The word effort means to put forth energy. Effort requires some life force from within us that we give in pursuit of our dreams, our goals, our plans. We put forth effort, not because we're pushed into doing so, but because we want to give to life! We each have a value in the world. We each have a purpose. So, as we put forth effort in our smaller pursuits, as well as our larger objectives, we take on something significant of the journey of our life. Life gives value to it, some energy. It has some excitement about it and we need to get into that excitement and find out what drives us to become involved.

Prosperity unfolds for us when we get involved in our life with excitement. It's up to us to do all that we can to create or make or support our life as a rewarding experience. The more powerful our intention to make our life to be a fulfilling experience, the more we engage other people to support us in the quality of that experience, the more rich and vibrant our experience will be. If we wish to be prosperous, we need to get involved in our life.

We need to decide that our life is (for us) the greatest experience going on planet earth, whether we like all of the people in it or not. This applies if we think we've got the greatest parents in the world or the worst, the best job or the poorest, or whatever. It means that we love our life just as it is, good - bad, or indifferent. And if it needs changing, it's up to us to "get in the driver's seat" and make it happen! Prosperity happens when we say, "OK, I'm willing to get involved in my life. I'm ready to take on prosperity more fully. I can handle whatever it takes to get there! It's up to me."

"So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it" Proverbs

"Whatever your mind can conceive and believe, the mind can achieve regardless of how many times you may have failed in the past."

Napolean Hill

"The longest journey begins with a single step."

Patanjali

"When you are inspired by some great purpose, some extraordinary project, all your thoughts break their bonds;

your mind transcends limitations; your consciousness expands in every direction; and you find yourself in a great, new and wonderful world."

Patanjali

"Man is a spiritual and mental being, and lives from the inside out, through his mind.

God is the source of your prosperity. This same Source has provided the substance of the universe (which I like to call "gold dust") that you can shape and form as prosperity. This substance is passive and impersonal, and waits for you to form it personally as you will.

You are master of the rich substance of the universe! You claim your mastery and take hold of this substance, shaping, molding, and forming it with your definite, deliberate thoughts, words, and actions. As you become definite about prosperity, it becomes definite for you. As you turn the great energy of your thinking upon ideas of plenty, you will have plenty, regardless of what people about you are saying or doing.

It is through writing, picturing, and affirming prosperity that your thoughts, words, and actions begin working for you in happy, prosperous, productive ways.

Begin right now to get definite about prosperity, by sitting down and making a list of the good you want to experience in your life.

Emma Curtis Hopkins, a great Truth teacher at the turn of the century, once said: "Sit down at a certain time every previous day and write down on paper what your ideas of good are. You will find that such a practice will pin your mind down to the Truth, and you will demonstrate results."

ANGELOLOGY

Thursday April 5 & 12
11 a.m. - 1 p.m.
Instructor Carrol Jude
Love Offering

You are not alone, nor have you been since your life began on Earth. Your angels have 'got your back' and always have. The earliest known record of angels and people was 4000 B.C. Archeologists found a steel depicting a winged figure pouring the water of life from an overflowing jar into the cup of the King. This was found in the Euphrates Valley outside of Babylon.

These workshops will answer questions you didn't even know you have about angels and about your personal relationship with angels.

How much do we really know about angels?

- What are the jobs of the angels?
- Can you name the most popular angels? There are 4 that almost everyone knows: Michael, Gabriel, Raphael and Uriel. How many more of the same rank are there?
- Did you know angels govern celestial bodies? We will explore which celestial bodies they govern.
- Angels even govern days and weeks. We will discover which astrological signs they rule.
- When did the first angel appear in the Holy Bible? What was the relationship between Jesus and the angels?

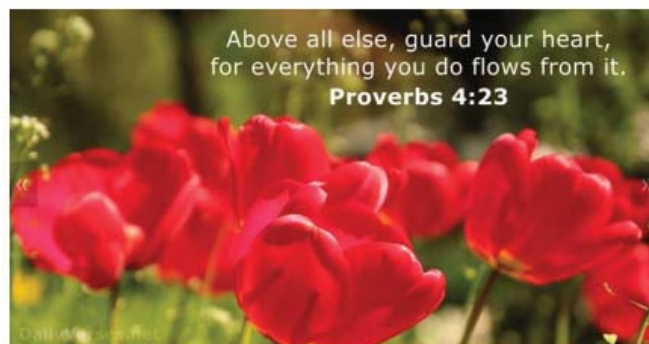

While Carrol has always believed in angels, since 1985 Carrol has had a personal relationship with them. When her Guardian Angel visited and revealed his name to be Timish, she discovered a new talent. Timish revealed to Carol where she came from and how she serves God as a spiritual being. He also gave Carrol a precious gift...the ability to communicate with Timish and other angels.

Since 1985, Carrol has been a vehicle for Angelic energy. She believes they have guided and protected her whenever needed. Quite recently, the Angels pressed upon Carrol the need for a class on the subject.

Assisting Carrol will be our own Gloria Standish, sometimes called our Angel lady. She brings to us a lifetime of study and experience of contacting angelic forces.

GROUP PAST LIFE REGRESSION

WITH ELISSA BENTSEN

The Healing Power of Your Past

Saturday April 28, 2018

12:30 – 3:30 p.m. $35

The program begins with a discussion of the emotional and spiritual value of Past Life Regression and the process of hypnosis...what it is and what it isn't. Reference to the work of Dr. Michael Newton who researched the Life Between Life Journeys of the Soul with emphasis on Soul Purpose and Soul Plan.

The attendees will be taken into a hypnosis which takes them from childhood to the last day to discover who they were, what they came to learn in that lifetime and what skills or gifts they have brought with them into their current life. Upon awakening the group will discuss their experiences.

Buried in your unconscious is the memory of all your past lives. Knowing who you were, your accomplishments and failures, talents and skills sheds the Light on who you are today. Hypnosis allows the conscious mind to relax and bring forth the buried information. It is a safe, relaxing process pioneered by psychiatrists.

Elissa Bentsen is a former psychotherapist and has been the Executive Director of several United Way agencies in Florida. She is a certified hypnotist specializing in Past Life and Life Between Life Regression. She has studied with Dr. Brian Weiss and is the recipient of the 2014 & 2015 Natural Awakenings Magazine "Nattie" award for Best Energy Healer. She is also a certified remote healer and has studied with Dr. Russell Targ, the former Director of the Stanford Research Institute and a Reiki practitioner.
