Reflections

Unleashing Your Inner Potential

Rev. LeRoy Zemke, Pastor

When you are inspired by some great purpose, some extraordinary project, all your thoughts break their bonds. Your mind transcends limitations, your consciousness expands in every direction and you find yourself in a new, great and wonderful world. Dormant forces, faculties and talents become alive, and you discover yourself to be a greater person by far than you ever dreamed yourself to be.

Patanjali

Don't live the same year 75 times in your lifetime and call it a life."

Robin Sharma

Making a change is not about your will power, it's about your motivation - your why. Dr. BJ Fogg, founder of the Persuasive Tech Lab at Stanford, shows that three elements must converge at the same moment for a behavior to occur: Motivation (your why), ability, and trigger. When behavior does not occur, at least one of those three elements are missing. Notice that willpower is not one of the 3 essential elements of behavior. You can find your way when you discover your why.

The priest Lamaas loved the boy Jesus the moment he came into the temple; and Jesus liked Lamaas above all the others in Jagannath. They often walked together in the temple grounds, discoursing on many matters.

Once Lamaas asked the young Jesus: "What is truth?" "In all the world there are two things: one is truth; the other falsehood. Truth is that which is and changes not; falsehood is that which seems to be, yet never seems the same. Truth abides; falsehood perishes."

"You answer well, my Jewish master," said the graying priest to the young boy. "Now, tell me, what is man?" "Man," said Jesus, "is truth and falsehood strangely mixed. And they strive in him."

"Man strives to attain power," said Lamaas. "What do you say of power?"

"Power," said Jesus, "is an illusion and nothing more. It is to be seen in the winds of the air and the waves of the sea and the arm of man. It spends itself and is no more. He who understands, understands the difference between power and force which is the Will of God."

"Wherefrom then comes understanding?" asked the priest.

"Understanding is the knowledge which can determine between truth and falsehood."

"How does wisdom differ from understanding?" asked Lamaas.

"Wisdom is the consciousness that God and man are one; that power is but an illusion; that heaven and earth and hell are not above or below, but within; and that God is all."

"Then what of faith?" asked the old man.

"Faith is the bridge that reaches from the heart of man to the heart of God. And that is salvation."

And so they discovered; Lamaas questioning Jesus to gain from him greater wisdom; and Jesus questioning the priest to learn of the beliefs of the people of Orissa.

by Joseph Gaer

As we briefly explore the idea of our potentiality, let us examine the following.

In our physical, human world, images of every kind of form or idea, show up in social media, the internet, the written word and digital world. We are "covered up" with an unlimited feast of choices including, perhaps buying nearly everything we see. We can take advantage of almost every possible life experience from travel to exotic lands, to major entertainment venues and a literal plethora of special services offered to embrace every area of our lives. The world of form as well as fantasy is available to us everywhere. What do we have to do? Search the internet and order it online from Amazon.com.

We see the results of creativity and imagination of many different kinds of people, companies, corporations and business interests ... Many of their products are offered and so thoroughly presented that we really only need to say "yes" ... and "presto", we now have our desires fulfilled via the internet.

Quite literally, we draw upon the exceptional creative skills (no longer potentialities) of hundreds of thousands, nay millions of people, who have explored their potential to bring or offer these gifts to all of us ...

Additionally, the people who offer their services, skills and products have had to design and market their product(s). They have so successfully marketed their product(s) to each of us that we tend to feel we cannot make our life work as easily or as efficiently or as successfully unless we use their products, or use their skills to enhance our lives.

Remember, I am not saying this is a bad thing. We often find new world technology makes our lives somewhat easier, less stressful, and fulfilling.

Our inner potential is unique to us. It emerges from the wellspring of Spirit within us. Too many of us say, "What's the special magic process." I believe we really need to allow ourselves to permit our imagination to unfold, to learn how to harness it and in the process, allow ourselves to find where our potential lies. It is always about giving permission to allow ourselves to explore, to discover, more than we know now.

What does it mean to unleash our inner power? Allow me to suggest a few ideas:

a. Give ourselves permission to learn a new skill or refine a skill already known. How about returning to an adult technical institute or mainstream or business college where we can improve mastery of the IT world, the digital environment, or any area of communication with computer science in its' unfolding development. The same could be said for any known art, such as dancing, singing, photography, painting, writing, theater and film making. What about including health, science, wealth building, making real estate a business, etc. etc.? One needs only to look at ones life to decide what internal interests remain unfulfilled.

b. Volunteer! A homeless shelter or a church environment can be an amazing environment in building human relationship skills. Communication with people in need brings capabilities forward that are truly beyond imagination.

c. Try traveling in small, short day trips within a hundred miles of where you live. Go alone or join a select group. Literally hundreds of opportunities are available. A telephone call or internet access is necessary to learn where one might go. New possible friends are available on the trip. Learn where one could go and enter a world of information about one's county, state, city, a specific location or area of the place where we live. We must be willing to not over analyze what it might or might not be or why or why not it might work! Try it. We may find it really if fulfilling!

d. The physical world offers a huge, unlimited variety of opportunities to explore our innermost yearnings. While searching the world around us, we may be led into unknown and uncharted terrain. In doing this we may learn more about the deeper purpose of our lives.

e. The yearning to understand a culture, a language or perhaps the ability we have to play music, possibly invest money in such a way that we can accumulate wealth for ourselves and ultimately others, emerges from a deep, internal part of ourselves. Always we learn that curiosity helps us to learn something new.

Doing the same thing every week, every weekend, every day may be comforting, but can become a deadly dull life style. We may become boring people. Our vision narrows. We can only talk about a few topics and we become provincial in our outlook on our attitudes and beliefs.

Finally, consider several additional ideas. If we learn to say "yes" to life's invitations rather than "no," we will find what is new ... a new food, a new environment, new persons with knowledges that are different and reveal interests and information that give us permission to say, "I've discovered something beyond what I knew before."

A playful, open attitude says to others as well as ourselves, "I'm willing to learn something different." For certain, a negative attitude says, "I'm unwilling to try, I'm scared and rather be secure in what is familiar." Inner potential is always unknown because we have not yet explored it.

Lastly, what have we to gain? From every vantage point, we move forward, upward. If we discover we dislike some new experience, we've gained something valuable. If we try something new and find it fulfilling, we have entered uncharted territory. God's blessing is there, in that moment, helping us, inspiring us to step forward as we go

The Urantia Book * Redefining Spirituality in the 21st Century

Welcome to the study of the literary masterpiece that answers questions about God, life in the universe, the history and future of this world, and the life of Jesus. The Urantia Book harmonizes history, science and religion into a philosophy of living that brings new meaning and hope into your life. If you are searching for answers, come and hear the stories of the Urantia Book.

The world needs spiritual truth that provides individuals with a pathway into a personal relationship with God. The book describes an endless destiny for humankind, teaching that living faith is the key to spiritual progress and eternal survival. The last part is the inspiring story of Jesus' life and teachings as never told before. It includes his birth, childhood, teenage years, adult travels and adventures, public ministry, crucifixion, and 19 resurrection appearances. When you read his story, you'll find your own life purpose invigorated and transformed.

The Urantia Book (sometimes called The Urantia Papers or The Fifth Epochal Revelation) has over 800,000 books in print and is a spiritual and philosophical book that originated in Chicago sometime between 1924 and 1955. The authorship remains a matter of speculation. The authors introduce the word "Urantia" as the name of the planet Earth and state that their intent is to "present enlarged concepts and advanced truth."

SHUSTAH CARDS

2 Saturdays November 4 & December 9
12:30-3:30pm

Teacher Rev. Nancy Christensen
Suggested donation $20 each class

Across the years, the Pages of Shustah have been expertly taught by Rev. Betty Pressly. The Shustah Cards are symbolic tools for understanding the written work of the Pages of Shustah.

This divination & meditation deck was created around 1974 by Ann Manser *, with the cooperation of Cecil North. Additionally, a companion manual was co-written by Ms. Manser and Mr. North to help clarify the deeper meaning of the deck.

The deck consists of 70 cards grouped into 5 different color(suits) - red, green, yellow, blue and black. These 5 colors can be compared and related to the suits of the Tarot. Each suit contains 14 cards. The sketches on the cards were done by Ann Manser, mostly in pen & ink. The images induce "movements" within the cards that provide a great venue for psychic awareness.

The descriptions in the companion book are brief but there is enough information provided to give a good foundation. Each card is described in 7 levels of understanding.

For the class you will want to have a deck of these cards as well as the companion book. Both can be obtained in our Miracles Bookstore.

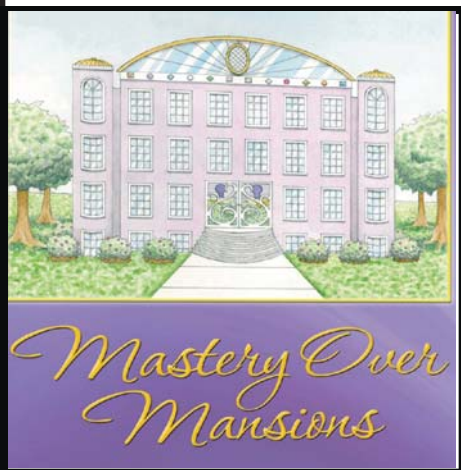

Rev. Nancy is a semi-retired ordained minister in the Spiritual Coptic faith. She has served as senior minister in several spiritualist churches in Michigan. Prior to her ordination she owned and operated a hypnotherapy clinic. Rev. Nancy is now retired in St. Petersburg. She has found that meditation and prayer are major tools and has taught classes in both. She continues to serve as a psychic, teacher, speaker and chaplain in the Temple of the Living God and in local hospitals.

Ann Manser was born in Montana. At the age of four she had a major recall of a former incarnation which revealed the ability to communicate with all forms of life. Her personal studies evolved from myths and symbolism into the deeper archives of color, auras, and evolutions of the kingdoms. Her studies concentrated on the revelations of the Holy Kabalah from which the Shustah and Kabalistic lectures were to emerge.*

Rooms of our Mansions

Saturday Nov. 11 12:30-3:30pm - $25

Rev. Madeline Diemer

There are wonderful parts of ourselves--yet we may not know they exist. Rooms of our Mansions offers fun ways to discover these hidden treasures.

Rooms reveals where our heart is and how we are building our spiritual vibration. The rooms we spend the most time in show us where our focus is, shaping our priorities and perceptions. This tells us if we are aligned to our divine right purpose or if we need to re-balance. We may be over-living so we feel stressed with too many responsibilities. Likewise we may be under-living our potential and so feel bored and resigned.

Exploring these heavenly rooms in our soul mansions provides insights, earthly practical help, and a deeper understanding of our spiritual nature. In this class we learn how to:

- Define consciousness and anchor it with a specific viewpoint and a specific soul vibration.
- Discover how our rooms reflect our purpose and potential.
- Increase awareness of the unseen world and its inhabitants.
- Identify and utilize specific tools and treatments to master a room's energy.
- Connect to heavenly states of mind in down-to-earth ways.
- Find your personal map for well-being.

This seminar will be led by Rev. Madeline Ann Diemer.

The seminar includes instructions for the exploration of the Rooms of our Mansions and a guided meditation. Opportunities to improve our psychic ability. Individual and group discussion will be a very important part of the class.

Rooms of our Mansions is based on the book Mastery Over Mansions: Golden Keys to Higher Consciousness.

Bio: Rev. Madeline Ann Diemer, MA, teaches in Tampa as a professor of psychology. She is the author of Enjoying Your Emotions and Mastery Over Mansions.

As an intuitive, she gives readings and hosts classes. Madeline forms prayer groups (one is 21 years old) and has provided space for Native American prayer lodges on the grounds of her home. As a facilitator, she worked with Dr. Raymond Moody, training people to utilize the Psychomanteum, as described in his book Reunions. Rev. Diemer served as one of the pastors of the Spiritual Center and returns to the Temple of the Living God to teach again after many years.

THE LAW OF ATTRACTION WORKSHOP
“When you wish upon a thought”
Saturday December 16, 12:30-3:30
$25
Light refreshments served
Instructor Weiss Kelly

Learn about the Law of Attraction and put it to work in our lives. This is a “crash” course on the universal law that has been with us since the beginning of time, at the very moment of creation and origin of thought in the mind of our Creator. Genesis, the first book of the Bible, set forth the creative story. Simply put, the Law asserts that a person’s thoughts attract people, situations, and circumstances, both positive and negative into our lives. We will learn how to focus our attention on whatever we want to manifest.

Can applying the principles bring it to you? The answer is, in time, YES!

Each one, in attendance, will be provided with a blank booklet to start journaling your wishes and/or desires for manifestation.

Weiss Kelly, PMAFA is a Certified Professional Astrologer serving on the Board of Directors and as Secretary of the International Federation of Astrologers. She is best known for her work with Business Astrology, servicing small business owners and personal charting. She has syndicated monthly Horoscope columns, (some on the Internet) and also featured articles in various publications. Weiss has returned to the area after practicing in Scottsdale, AZ for many years, No stranger to the Temple, she is happy to be back “home” in St. Petersburg where she worked with PM Magazine and later hosted weekly Cable Shows for over six years. Burning Bowl and New Year's Meditation

Sunday December 31, 2017
11 am service

Forward, Onward, Upward

Our country and our world have been deeply challenged this past year as perhaps never before. We have been deluged with messages from media and others around us promoting fear, division and confusion. Yes, we CAN choose to look ahead and move toward the new year knowing that there is, indeed, a deeper purpose to our lives and that we are guided by a Higher Power.

Spiritual teachings suggest that reviewing the content of our personal lives is vital to becoming open to receive inner direction, clarity and wisdom. This requires us to go within and from those innermost recesses of our being, bring our needs, state our intentions and become receptive to hear and feel the Guiding Hand of God's Presence.

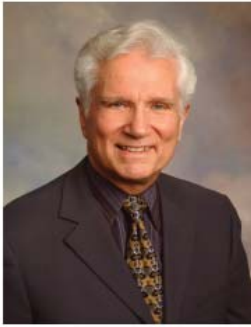

Burning Bowl Ritual:

- * Release the old, and outworn ideas, patterns and behaviors
- * Open to the cycle of renewal in your life
- * Participate in New Year Meditation
- * Step confidently into the new year of 2018 supported by friends and spiritual forces that guide you

After the service, refreshments will be provided in the lobby, while we dismantle the Christmas trees.

Please plan to join us as we close the old year and welcome the new!
