Reflections

The Eternal Festival

Love is Reborn In Us

Rev. LeRoy Zemke

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom should I be afraid?

Psalm 27:1

O Mind of God incarnate, O Thought in flesh enshrined, In human form Thou speakest To men the Father's mind: God's thought to earth Thou bringest That men in Thee may see what God is like, and seeing, Think God's thoughts after Thee.

O Heart of God incarnate, Love-bearer to mankind, From Thee we learn what love is, In Thee love's ways we find God's love to earth: Thou bringest In living deeds that prove How sweet to serve all others, When we all others love.

O Son of God Incarnate
Wilbur Fisk Tillett, Alfred Wooler

Since the birth of Jesus who became the Christed One, the quality most fervently associated with his name and thus his public mission is the quality of love, unconditional, holy, all encompassing, compassionate love! It is held in perhaps nearly all writings, reflections and interpretations of the life Jesus lived as the epitome of Divine Love expressed in a human incarnation.

We, at our human, ordinary levels of awareness (and function) tend to pale in our efforts to generate non-ordinary states of love. Love in this expanded sense of meaning implies the capacity to accept, in a universal sense, all sentient beings as expressions of a Divine Source, God, The Unlimited, All Holy Presence! It would also suggest, I believe, that we can rise above all judgment, criticism and limitations emerging from the human condition and genuinely experience a unity consciousness, a deep bond that surpasses the limits of family, community, tribe or even nations. This unity, or sense of oneness, is a part of what I believe is meant when we say to one another or to a group, to a community in any part of our world, "I accept you. I accept that you and I are one. I accept that we are each connected to the same Divine Source, the same God, the same Holy Presence by whatever name."

When we focus upon ourselves, in the human sense, how do we come to accept the quality of love that Jesus the Christ and others like him offered us? Is it genuinely possible? Or is this notion some fantasy that we hope to achieve?

Jesus is attributed to having said, "You will do even greater things than I am doing..." (John 14:12) This implies that we innately carry the same power that he was aware of, or we could say he was connected to. Our task or our inner work is to consciously acknowledge the Divine Presence, the same Presence of which Jesus the man is an obviously awakened part of his Innate Beingness, and allow its development, unfolding and expansion in our lives.

Several ideas are important to consider. (a) Jesus was the Supreme Way Shower; he illustrated by his life example his connection to God. That connection constantly flowed out in every direction of his life and ministry. (b) Jesus showed an acceptance to all beings, young, old, different nationalities, tribes and whatever peoples were part of his world. He taught inclusion, not separation; forgiveness instead of getting even; love over hate; trust and compassion over doubt, fear and bigotry. (c) Though Jesus was crucified by his enemies, (those who opposed him and his "radical" teachings of love, forgiveness, acceptance and living together in harmony), what lives today remains steady, strong and I believe is the essence of his teaching as the expression of this Divine Love.

Some twenty centuries later, we are struggling (culturally) to learn how to accept, cooperate with and honor other beings. Cultures are loudly clashing (amidst the furors of wars and other political agendas). Love's presence seems far afield and not very available when we are focused on terror, fear and widespread loss.

If love is to be reborn in us, I feel we must make some practical yet necessary shifts in our lives to open up to a safe place (in us) for this to happen.

1. DAILY, EVERY SINGLE DAY, SEND LOVE TO ALL BEINGS. Imagine it as a subtle force such as radiant light and imbue it with the deepest, purest, noblest quality of spiritual energy that is available. Do not worry about "how" to do it. Just send love to every person, country, nation, continent and part of the world. Do it wherever you are, in your auto, or at home, at work or in the shopping mall, on vacation, on the highway, aboard an airplane or on a ship. Let it become a recognizable energy in consciousness which you and I express wherever we are.

2. REMEMBER THOSE WHO HAVE TOUCHED YOUR LIFE with gentleness, caring, hope, beauty, grace, joy, love, respect ... for whatever reason. Take a few moments now to recall them, one by one, and send a silent blessing to them. Then, if possible, pick up the telephone and call them. Say thank you or offer to set up an impromptu visit. Or send them a hand written letter or note expressing your personal thoughts regarding that person's positive influence upon your life. Even an e-mail will do if it's your own original thoughts filled with your own perceptions of consideration(s) received. You might even send a gift or fresh flowers, run an errand, or do a favor. These are but a few select ways we send expressions of love into life, individually, day after day, week after week, year after year.

And we do this because we want to allow the force of love to flower, to flourish, to grow, to radiate outward and not because we seek a favor, a compliment or special consideration from a friend or family or from life.

3. PRACTICE OPENING TO LOVE'S PRESENCE when it is not convenient or easy to do so. That is, when an argument unfolds, a dispute arises, a potential confrontation over real or imagined slights, or any of a hundred different reasons that may trigger disappointment, anger, resentments of any kind - justified or not - allow love's presence to grace your thoughts, honor your words, become the focus of your touch. Allow love's energy to soothe the troubled or tangled thoughts and feelings.

The task is to genuinely see beyond the moment at hand, to see wholeness and not a splintering off of some fragmentary issue. The work is to remain conscious of our connection to the Holy Presence as fully, deeply and richly as possible that we might thus see more clearly. It is in this way we anchor that energy and model it to ourselves first, and then, in an on-going sense, to others. What will happen is that we will slowly begin to feel peaceful. Once we are at peace, internally, we are able, by our example, to invite others to do the same. It becomes safe to allow love or connectedness wherever we are. The more we practice this, allow it, open to bathe in its energy, the more it will show up in every area of our life.

This 3-day workshop (15 hrs.) will provide the student with many tools and techniques for self-healing and healing others utilizing Chiron Healing®. All attendees will participate, practicing the tools, and will receive a Chiron Healing I manual and certificate of attendance. Chiron Healing® is a powerful modality that supports the healing of issues at all levels. It sees all matter as an expression of energy and works deeply by clearing, repairing and strengthening the etheric pattern, allowing the physical body and feeling centers to come into balance.

Bio: A student of the original founder Dr. Creed, Lonnie was recently recertified by him in the four levels of Chiron Healing. He has been a practitioner of healing modalities for over 35 years, and has also authored various books, including “The Soul as Healer”. He utilizes sound, color, essential oils and the etheric/mental levels of the individual in his work and focuses on the use of affirmation and visualization as great starting points for healing. Lonnie believes in the co-creative process of healing – one must be open and receptive to healing energies, as all permanent healing starts from within. He is also a life-long musician and is currently marketing his latest work: Endpoint, a sci-fi/ fantasy screenplay. Lonnie holds a Bachelor’s degree in Physics, a Master’s Degree in Project Management and is a certified massage therapist.

Let Us Keep Our Faith in the Christ Light

Officiating
Rev. Karmene Lulis

Let us come together this wondrous evening to allow the ever new inspiration of Christmas to fill our spirit, and discover the richness of our Special Musical Presentation led by Carol Mitchell.

All are warmly invited to bring your loved ones and friends to share a portion of your Christmas Eve with the Temple family.

Rev. Karmene will share a Christmas reflection or inspiration drawn from her repertoire of holiday remembrances.

Seasonal delicacies and holiday punch will be served in the outer lobby immediately following the service.

Burning Bowl and New Year's Meditation

Sunday December 30
11 am service

Each of us is invited to participate in this powerful ritual to:

- * Release the old and outworn
- * Open to the cycle of renewal in our life
- * Step confidently into the new year of 2019 supported by spiritual forces that guide us.

In preparation for beginning the new year, consider what we seek to let go of, “forgive and forget”, do what we deeply yearn to achieve or put into motion. During the ritual, each participant will place his billet in the consuming flames of the Burning Bowl assisted by Rev. Zemke and Rev. Lusia who will hold sacred space as each billet burns.

Following this cleansing, inspiring activity Rev. Zemke will then lead the congregation in a focused New Year Meditation to aid everyone in taking a gentle step forward in their very own personal new year.

After the service, refreshments will be provided in the lobby, while we dismantle the Christmas trees.

Please plan to join us as we close the old year and welcome the new!
